

WANTED BY FBI — Benjamin Hoskins Paddock (shown in FBI photo) has been added to the FBI's list of "10 Most Wanted Fugitives." He escaped from the Federal Correctional Institution at La Tuna, Tex., Dec. 31, 1968, while serving a 20-year sentence following his conviction for robbing a Phoenix, Ariz., bank in 1960. Paddock, who uses several aliases, is a white American, 43 years old, and presents a striking appearance. He is 6 feet 4 inches tall, weighs 245 pounds, is blonde and balding, but his head may be completely shaved.

Post 638 plans carnival

BESSEMER — Committees for the American Legion carnival will be formed during a meeting at 8:30 p.m. today at the Earl J. Watt Post 638 here.

Commander Robert Slosser said that preparatory job assignments for the carnival slated for July 2-5 will be discussed and committees formed.

Vice Commander William Young will give the final membership report for 1969 and recommend new procedures to follow for the next season.

Baseball chairman Charles Donofrio will report on the progress of the newly organized boys baseball team sponsored by the post and present the schedule of games to be played this year.

County delegates Clare Carr and Len Galanski will report on the recent Lawrence County Council of the American Legion meeting at the Col. Charles Young Post 528 in New Castle.

Adjutant Wilbur Kursel will call for a re-opening of nominations for post officers.

The evening will end with a social hour and refreshments served by the auxiliary.

The auxiliary will meet at 8 p.m. Monday.

President Helen Mioni said that the unit's adopted girl, Shirley Pevarnik of Latrobe, Pa., at the Scotland School for Veterans Children graduated and has also been awarded a American Legion scholarship. The unit has also sent her a graduation gift and cards of congratulations. The American Legion's Department of Pennsylvania Scotland School near Chambersburg, Franklin County, Pa., is a Commonwealth institution exclusively for needy children of deceased or unfortunate veterans.

Secretary Jessie Rowe will report on the recent national president's luncheon she attended at the Twin Coaches with Mrs. Mioni and Janet Hodge.

Mrs. Mioni also announced that Janet Stewart was chosen outstanding girl of the year. She was chosen on the basis of scholarship and leadership. Janet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Stewart of Enon Valley RD 2.

The main order of business will be the election of officers for 1969-70.
